MSD to Host 10th Annual Stakeholder Breakfast

Community Leaders Gather to Discuss “Utility of the Future”

The Metropolitan Sewer District of Greater Cincinnati
(MSD)

WHO: Todd Portune, Hamilton County Board of County Commission, Commissioner
Wendell Young, City of Cincinnati, Councilmember
James A. (Tony) Parrott, Executive Director, MSD

MSD engineers and project managers will host Breakout Sessions on:

- “Sustainable Solutions in Your Community”
- “Construction Projects in Your Community”

WHAT: The Metropolitan Sewer District of Greater Cincinnati (MSD) will share its blueprint for the “utility of the future” with community leaders from around Hamilton County. An overview of significant water, wastewater and stormwater projects, key accomplishments and future initiatives will be given. Attendees can discuss topics that directly affect their community and participate in a dialogue to foster sustainable planning to enhance Greater Cincinnati’s future.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 30, 2012
7:30 – 9:30 a.m.

WHERE: Sharonville Convention Center
11355 Chester Road
Sharonville, OH 45246

WHY: The consent decree provided a foundation for MSD’s Wet Weather Program. Now we must identify opportunities to work collaboratively with our community partners so we can best integrate water, sewer and stormwater projects within Hamilton County and the City of Cincinnati, share services and implement new service lines to create the utility of the future that will sustain Greater Cincinnati for future generations.
